Name of Subsidiary	Jurisdiction
SOUTH ATLANTIC GOLD BRASIL EXPLORACAO MINERAL LTDA ("SAG")	Brazil

CORPORATE

Tucano, Brazil

On July 5, 2023 the Company announced pursuant to the Judicial Reorganization Process ("Processo de Recuperação Judicial") of Mina Tucano Ltda., Beadell (Brazil) Pty Ltd., and Beadell (Brazil 2) Pty Ltd., it was granted the opportunity to investigate and potentially negotiate the acquisition of the Tucano Gold Mine ("Tucano"), wherein the Company had officially filed interest into the Processo de Recuperação Judicial.

Pursuant to the terms of the of the Processo de Recuperação Judicial, the Company was provided the opportunity to evaluate and potentially negotiate with the creditors of Tucano a restructuring of the outstanding debt of Tucano. In accordance with the terms of the process, South Atlantic had the right to terminate negotiations at any time should negotiations with the creditors of Tucano fail to advance or if the Company was not satisfied, in its sole discretion, with the results of its negotiations or its review due diligence of Tucano.

Over the coming weeks that followed South Atlantic, in consultation with advisors and qualified persons, advanced its investigation and worked to advance the proceedings of the legal process in Brazil, including negotiations with the a number of creditors including Mina Tucano Ltda., Beadell (Brazil) Pty Ltd. and Beadell (Brazil 2) Pty Ltd. (such three entities and the subsidiaries of Mina Tucano Ltda., collectively, the "Tucano Group") that gave support to South Atlantic's indicative proposal to acquire entities of the Tucano Group under the Processo de Recuperação Judicial pursuant to a plan of reorganization to be approved by creditors and confirmed by the relevant court in a manner favorable to all stakeholders involved.

On September 15, 2023 the Company elected not to proceed with the advancement of the acquisition of Tucano as it's terms and conditions demonstrated in the Mina Tucano Ltda. judicial recovery process were not chosen by the creditors. Although the Company had successful negotiations with certain creditors, some of which issued letters of priority and support, and although the Company also offered and negotiated better financial terms for many major creditors than a competing proposal, the conditions precedent set out in South Atlantic's proposal (primarily subject to financing and TSX Venture Exchange approval) were not viewed as being favorable, in comparison to the debtor's financial reorganization plan to the creditors in general.

Additionally South Atlantic will continue to look for options to enable the continuation of the exploration program of its flagship asset Pedra Branca. And will remain open to other potential opportunities.

2024 - Exploration & Outlook

Outlook

The Company currently holds a dominant strategic tenement package at Pedra Branca with a potential mineral endowment. When South Atlantic commenced its Phase II Exploration Program there were 4 main targets, including 3 with initial defined mineral resources and as result of the Phase II Exploration Program has produced positive results which have allowed the Company to expand its pipeline of priority targets to a new total of 13 targets. With limited funding, the Company's team has efficiently delivered the new targets in areas that were never explored before while fulfilling the Company's legal obligations with respect to keeping the tenement package in good standing. Certain tenements will require additional work in order to keep them in good standing in the next 12 months as such the Company will require additional funding in order to complete any further exploration work for 2024 to maintain these tenements.

The Big Kidd Property

The Big Kidd Project consists of 4,056 hectares ("ha") accessed by paved highway (Highway 5A) from Merritt, BC and 250 km northeast of Vancouver, BC. The property is crosscut by logging roads, a powerline runs adjacent to the BK Breccia deposit and there is a custom mill at the historic Craigmont* Mine (30 km to the north). In total, the infrastructure at Big Kidd is excellent. While the project is 100% owned by the Company, there is a 2.5% net smelter return ("NSR") royalty with full buy-back rights. The exploration target at the Big Kidd property is alkali porphyry type copper-gold deposit.

Effective November 4, 2022 the Company entered into an option agreement (the "Option"), further amended on January 4, 2023 ("First Amendment") and February 28, 2023 ("Second Amendment") to divest its 100% interest of the Big Kidd Project, British Columbia, to Quetzal Copper Limited ("Quetzal"), a British Columbia corporation for a total consideration of $4,800,000 ($150,000 initial commitment ("Commitment Amount") in option and milestone payments and a 2% net smelter royalty ("NSR") upon completion of the required milestones (the "Transaction").

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The Company makes estimates and assumptions about the future that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities. Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. In the future, actual experience may differ from these estimates and assumptions.

The effect of a change in an accounting estimate is recognized in the period of the change, if the change affects that period only, or in the period of the change and future years, if the change affects both.

Information about critical judgments and estimates in applying accounting policies that have the most significant risk of causing material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities included in the preparation of these financial statements are discussed below:

Going Concern

The assessment of the Company's ability to continue as a going concern and to raise sufficient funds to pay for its ongoing operating expenditures, meet its liabilities for the ensuing year, and to fund planned and contractual exploration programs, involves significant judgment based on historical experience and other factors, including expectation of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Impairment of Exploration and Evaluation Assets

The application of the Company's accounting policy for exploration and evaluation expenditures requires judgment in determining whether it is likely that future economic benefits will flow to the Company. If, after exploration and evaluation expenditures are capitalized, information becomes available suggesting that the carrying amount of an exploration and evaluation asset may exceed its recoverable amount the Company carries out an impairment test at the cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating unit's level in the year the new information becomes available. Such impairment tests and recoverable value models have a degree of estimation and judgment which may differ in the future.

Valuation of Share-based Payments

The Company uses the Black-Scholes option pricing model for valuation of share-based payments. Option pricing models require the input of subjective assumptions including expected price volatility, interest rate and forfeiture rate. Changes in the input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate and the Company's earnings and equity reserves.

There have been no accounting pronouncements with significant impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

The overall objective of the Board is to set policies that seek to reduce risk as far as possible without unduly affecting the Company's competitiveness and flexibility. Further details regarding these policies are set out below.

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market prices are comprised of interest rate and commodity price risk.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that future cash flows will fluctuate as a result of changes in market interest rates. The Company has cash balances and non-interest-bearing debt. The Company's current policy is to invest excess cash in guaranteed investment certificates or interest-bearing accounts of major Canadian chartered banks. The Company regularly monitors compliance to its cash management policy. Cash is subject to floating interest rates.

Credit Risk

The Company, as at November 30, 2023 and February 28, 2023, does not have any borrowings. Interest rate risk is limited to potential decreases on the interest rate offered on cash held with chartered Canadian financial institutions. The Company considers this risk to be not significant.

Commodity Price Risk

The Company's ability to raise capital to fund exploration or development activities may be subject to risks associated with fluctuations in the market prices of the relevant commodities. The Company closely monitors commodity prices to determine the appropriate course of action to be taken by the Company.

Foreign Exchange Risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that a variation in exchange rates between the Canadian dollar, United States dollar and Brazil Real and other foreign currencies will affect the Company's operations and financial results.

The functional currency of the parent and its subsidiaries is Canadian dollars. A portion of the Company`s operating expenses are in Brazilian Real.

As at November 30, 2023, the Company has not entered into contracts to manage foreign exchange risk.

The Company is exposed to foreign exchange risk through the following assets and liabilities:

	November 30 2023	February 28 2023
Cash	$193	$752
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	(232,816)	(96,044)
	$ (232,623)	$(95,292)

As at November 30, 2023, with other variables unchanged, a 5% increase or decrease in value of the Brazilian Real against the currencies to which the Company is normally exposed to Canadian dollars would result in an increase or decrease of approximately $11,631 (loss) (February 28, 2023 - $4,764 loss) to the net loss for the period ended November 30, 2023.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company's policy is to endeavour that it will have sufficient cash to allow it to meet its liabilities when they become due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Company's reputation. However, circumstances may arise where the Company is unable to meet those goals. The key to success in managing liquidity is the degree of certainty in the cash flow projections. If future cash flows are fairly uncertain, the liquidity risk increases.

Typically, the Company ensures that it has sufficient cash on demand to meet expected operational expenses for a period of 90 days. To achieve this objective, the Company would prepare annual capital expenditure budgets, which are regularly monitored and updated as considered necessary. Further, when required the Company utilizes authorizations for expenditures on exploration projects to further manage expenditure.

The Company monitors its risk of shortage of funds by monitoring the maturity dates of existing trade and other accounts payable and option payment commitments. The Company endeavours to not maintain any trade payables beyond a 30-day period to maturity.

Determination of Fair Value

Fair values have been determined for measurement and/or disclosure purposes based on the following methods. When applicable, further information about the assumptions made in determining fair values is disclosed in the notes specific to that asset or liability.

The consolidated statements of financial position carrying amounts for trade and other payables and provision approximate fair value due to their short-term nature.

Due to the use of subjective judgments and uncertainties in the determination of fair values these values should not be interpreted as being realizable in an immediate settlement of the financial instruments.

CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Company monitors its common shares, warrants and stock options as capital. The Company manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares. Although the Company has been successful at raising funds in the past through the issuance of share capital, it is uncertain whether it will continue this method of financing due to the current difficult market conditions.

In order to facilitate the management of its capital requirements, the Company prepares expenditure budgets that are updated as necessary depending on various factors, including successful capital deployment and general industry conditions. Management reviews the capital structure on a regular basis to ensure that the above objectives are met. The Company's capital is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements. There have been no changes to the Company's approach to capital management during the period ended November 30, 2023.

Risks and uncertainties

The Company is in the mineral exploration and development business and as such, is exposed to a number of risks and uncertainties that are not uncommon to other companies in the same business. The industry is capital intensive and is subject to fluctuations in market sentiment, metal prices, foreign exchange and interest rates. There is no certainty that properties which the Company has described as assets on its balance sheet will be realized at the amounts recorded. The only sources of future funds for further exploration programs or, if such exploration programs are successful for the development of economic ore bodies and commencement of commercial production thereon, which are presently available to the Company are the sale of equity capital or the farm-out, of an interest in its properties to be earned by another party carrying out further exploration or development. Although the Company has been successful in accessing the equity market during the past years, there is no assurance that such sources of financing will be available on acceptable terms, if at all. The Company will require additional funding in order to maintain it current tenements related to its Pedra Branca Project (See Pedra Branca "Outlook")

The Company's subsidiary SAG currently has 2 employees. All other work is carried out through independent consultants and the Company requires that all consultants carry their own insurance to cover any potential liabilities as a result of their work on a project. In certain cases where consultants are unable to carry their own insurance the Company includes such individuals under its coverage.

The Company is subject to additional risk factors in relation to operating in a foreign jurisdiction in relation to its Pedra Branca Property located in Brazil which initially include but are not limited to:

Global Economy Risk

The Company's business may be affected by changes in political and market conditions, such as interest rates, availability of credit, inflation rates, changes in laws, and national and international circumstances. Recent geopolitical events, including, the outbreaks of the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, relations between NATO and Russian Federation regarding the situation in Ukraine, and potential economic global challenges such as the risk of the higher inflation and energy crises, may create further uncertainty and risk with respect to the prospects of the Company's business

While it cannot be assured, the Company expects reduced forward-impact of COVID-19 as relates to the mining sector to generally be in-line with normalization of its effects within the broader business sector during 2023 and beyond.

Political stability and government regulations in Brazil

The Company's interests in Brazil that may be affected in varying degrees by political instability, government regulations relating to the mining industry and foreign investment therein, and the policies of other nations in respect of Brazil. Any changes in regulations or shifts in political conditions are beyond Company's control and may adversely affect its business. Company's operations may be affected in varying degrees by government regulations, including those with respect to restrictions on production, price controls, export controls, income taxes, expropriation of property, employment, land use, water use, environmental legislation and mine safety. The regulatory environment is in a state of continuing change, and new laws, regulations and requirements may be retroactive in their effect and implementation. The Company's operations may also be adversely affected in varying degrees by political and economic instability, economic or other sanctions imposed by other nations, terrorism, military repression, crime, extreme fluctuations in currency exchange rates and high inflation.

Environmental Compliance.

The Company is currently taking all necessary technical and administrative steps to remain compliant with all licensing and permits required during its current Pedra Branca Project Exploration Licenses development stage. In addition, the Company is now required to conduct an Environmental Impact Study specifically to ANM Process 800.334/1995, moving forward into the mining concession stage.

ANM has issued Ordinance 55/2021 suspending all processual deadlines for mineral processes until June 30th, 2021. Time count restarts from July 1st, 2021.

Going Concern

The Company has not generated revenues from its operations to date. These condensed consolidated interim financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. For the nine months ended November 30, 2023, the Company had a net loss of $672,372 (2022 – $323,814), and as of that date, an accumulated a deficit of $4,599,170 (February 28, 2023 – $3,926,798). The Company will continue to have to raise funds in order to continue the development of its exploration properties and general operations.

As the Company is in the exploration stage, the recoverability of the costs incurred to date on exploration properties is dependent upon the existence of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain the necessary financing to complete the exploration and development of its properties and upon future profitable production or proceeds from the disposition of the properties. The Company has financed its operations to date primarily through the issuance of common shares and exercise of stock options and share purchase warrants.

Management cannot provide assurance that the Company will ultimately achieve profitable operations or positive cash flow. The Company's continuation as a going concern is dependent on its ability to attain profitable operations and raise additional capital. These matters indicate the existence of material uncertainties that cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company's accompanying financial statements do not reflect the adjustments to the carrying values of assets and liabilities, the reported revenues and expenses and statement of financial position classifications that would be necessary if the going concern assumption was inappropriate. Such adjustments could be material.

Any forward-looking information in this MD&A is based on the conclusions of management. The Company cautions that due to risks and uncertainties, actual events may differ materially from current expectations. With respect to the Company's operations, actual events may differ from current expectations due to economic conditions, new opportunities, changing budget priorities of the Company and other factors.
