Pedra Branca - Brazil

Pursuant to an option agreement the Company acquired a 100% interest (subject to certain underlying royalties to the original vendors) in the Pedra Branca Property by completing exploration expenditures totaling a minimum of US$1 million and by delivering a National Instrument ("NI") 43-101 technical report dated April 25, 2021 and entitled "Mineral Resource Estimation for the Pedra Branca Gold Project Ceará State – Brazil" authored by Rodrigo Mello, FAusIMM of RBM Consultoria Mineral Belo Horizonte, Brazil (the "2021 – NI 43-101 Report") which is filed under the Company's profile on the SEDAR website at www.sedarplus.ca that outlined the Company's maiden inferred resource.

The inferred resource outlined in the 2021- NI 43-101 Report was completed by the consolidation of historical drilling and Phase 1 Reverse Circulation ("RC") drilling results with an average depth of 41.2 meters ("m").

2024 - Exploration & Outlook

Throughout the period ended November 30, 2024 and as at the date of this Report, the Company has successfully submitted to the ANM ("National Mining Agency of Brazil") with the PER ("Partial Exploration Status Report") for 5 tenements requesting 3 years of extension for additional exploration works.

The tenements of Floresta (800.431/2021), Duvidosa (800.432/2021), MoquenSW (800.433/2021), Cipo (800,434/2021), Pirangi (800.435/2021) summarize a total area of over 9,000 hectares.

With regards to its 3 main tenements (Queimadas, Coelhos and Mirador):

On April 30th, 2024, SEMACE (the environmental agency of the state of Ceara) issued the Terms of Reference stablishing the minimum requirements for the environmental studies in the area of influence of the Project. The document is valid for one year.

During the recent quarter, the Company engaged with external consultants (Global Resource Engineering LTD or "GRE") to identify potential trial mining scale options for the current identified resource previously published by the Company, and also based on mine plans submitted by the previous title holder Jaguar Mining Inc. to ANM. Initial findings demonstrated that the mine plan will need to be readjusted and further exploration will be required. While the mine plan will need to be re-drafted, a proper Environmental Impact Study cannot be conducted. We have filed that note with ANM and are awaiting a response on the next steps, the ANM is backlogged and some requests are taking many months or years to be answered.

The Company remains in compliance with the Environmental Agency of the State of Ceara, as well as with ANM.

Outlook

The Company will continue to do the work necessary to keep the tenements in good standing, which in part will require new exploration programs to achieve later levels of permits and potentially mine licenses.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The Company makes estimates and assumptions about the future that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities. Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. In the future, actual experience may differ from these estimates and assumptions.

The effect of a change in an accounting estimate is recognized in the period of the change, if the change affects that period only, or in the period of the change and future years, if the change affects both.

Information about critical judgments and estimates in applying accounting policies that have the most significant risk of causing material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities included in the preparation of the condensed consolidated interim statements are discussed below:

Going Concern

The assessment of the Company's ability to continue as a going concern and to raise sufficient funds to pay for its ongoing operating expenditures, meet its liabilities for the ensuing year, and to fund planned and contractual exploration programs, involves significant judgment based on historical experience and other factors, including expectation of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Impairment of Exploration and Evaluation Assets

The application of the Company's accounting policy for exploration and evaluation expenditures requires judgment in determining whether it is likely that future economic benefits will flow to the Company. If, after exploration and evaluation expenditures are capitalized, information becomes available suggesting that the carrying amount of an exploration and evaluation asset may exceed its recoverable amount the Company carries out an impairment test at the cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating unit's level in the year the new information becomes available. Such impairment tests and recoverable value models have a degree of estimation and judgment which may differ in the future.

Valuation of Share-based Payments

The Company uses the Black-Scholes option pricing model for valuation of share-based payments. Option pricing models require the input of subjective assumptions including expected price volatility, interest rate and forfeiture rate. Changes in the input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate and the Company's earnings and equity reserves.

Recent and Future Accounting Pronouncements

There have been no accounting pronouncements with significant impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Financial instruments and other instruments

The Company is exposed through its operations to the following financial risks:
- Market Risk
- Credit Risk
- Liquidity Risk

In common with all other businesses, the Company is exposed to risks that arise from its use of financial instruments. This note describes the Company's objectives, policies and processes for managing those risks and the methods used to measure them. Further quantitative information in respect of these risks is presented throughout these consolidated financial statements.

There have been no substantive changes in the Company's exposure to financial instrument risks, its objectives, policies and processes for managing those risks or the methods used to measure them from previous years unless otherwise stated in the note.

General Objectives, Policies and Processes

The Board of Directors has overall responsibility for the determination of the Company's risk management objectives and policies and, whilst retaining ultimate responsibility for them, it has delegated the authority for designing and operating processes that ensure the effective implementation of the objectives and policies to the Company's management. The effectiveness of the processes put in place and the appropriateness of the objectives and policies it sets are reviewed periodically by the Board of Directors if and when there are any changes or updates required.

The overall objective of the Board is to set policies that seek to reduce risk as far as possible without unduly affecting the Company's competitiveness and flexibility. Further details regarding these policies are set out below.

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market prices are comprised of interest rate and commodity price risk.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that future cash flows will fluctuate as a result of changes in market interest rates. The Company has cash balances and non-interest-bearing debt. The Company's current policy is to invest excess cash in guaranteed investment certificates or interest-bearing accounts of major Canadian chartered banks. The Company regularly monitors compliance to its cash management policy. Cash is subject to floating interest rates.

Credit Risk

The Company, as at November 30, 2024 and November 30, 2023, does not have any borrowings. Interest rate risk is limited to potential decreases on the interest rate offered on cash held with chartered Canadian financial institutions. The Company considers this risk to be not significant.

Commodity Price Risk

The Company's ability to raise capital to fund exploration or development activities may be subject to risks associated with fluctuations in the market prices of the relevant commodities. The Company closely monitors commodity prices to determine the appropriate course of action to be taken by the Company.

Foreign Exchange Risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that a variation in exchange rates between the Canadian dollar, United States dollar and Brazil Real and other foreign currencies will affect the Company's operations and financial results.

The functional currency of the parent and its subsidiaries is Canadian dollars. A portion of the Company`s operating expenses are in Brazilian Real.

As at November 30, 2024, the Company has not entered into contracts to manage foreign exchange risk.

The Company is exposed to foreign exchange risk through the following assets and liabilities:

	November 30 2024	February 29 2024
Cash	$1,515	$1,404
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	(32,037)	(297,980)
	$ (30,522)	$ (296,576)

As at November 30, 2024, with other variables unchanged, a 5% increase or decrease in value of the Brazilian Real against the currencies to which the Company is normally exposed to Canadian dollars would result in an increase or decrease of approximately $30,522 (February 29, 2024 - $14,829) to the net loss for the nine months ended November 30, 2024.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company's policy is to endeavour that it will have sufficient cash to allow it to meet its liabilities when they become due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Company's reputation. However, circumstances may arise where the Company is unable to meet those goals. The key to success in managing liquidity is the degree of certainty in the cash flow projections. If future cash flows are fairly uncertain, the liquidity risk increases.

Typically, the Company ensures that it has sufficient cash on demand to meet expected operational expenses for a period of 90 days. To achieve this objective, the Company would prepare annual capital expenditure budgets, which are regularly monitored and updated as considered necessary. Further, when required the Company utilizes authorizations for expenditures on exploration projects to further manage expenditure.

The Company monitors its risk of shortage of funds by monitoring the maturity dates of existing trade and other accounts payable and option payment commitments. The Company endeavours to not maintain any trade payables beyond a 30-day period to maturity.

Determination of Fair Value

Fair values have been determined for measurement and/or disclosure purposes based on the following methods. When applicable, further information about the assumptions made in determining fair values is disclosed in the notes specific to that asset or liability.

The consolidated statements of financial position carrying amounts for trade and other payables and provision approximate fair value due to their short-term nature.

Due to the use of subjective judgments and uncertainties in the determination of fair values these values should not be interpreted as being realizable in an immediate settlement of the financial instruments.

CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Company monitors its common shares, warrants and stock options as capital. The Company manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares. Although the Company has been successful at raising funds in the past through the issuance of share capital, it is uncertain whether it will continue this method of financing due to the current difficult market conditions.

In order to facilitate the management of its capital requirements, the Company prepares expenditure budgets that are updated as necessary depending on various factors, including successful capital deployment and general industry conditions. Management reviews the capital structure on a regular basis to ensure that the above objectives are met. The Company's capital is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements. There have been no changes to the Company's approach to capital management during the nine months ended November 30, 2024.

Risks and uncertainties

The Company is in the mineral exploration and development business and as such, is exposed to a number of risks and uncertainties that are not uncommon to other companies in the same business. The industry is capital intensive and is subject to fluctuations in market sentiment, metal prices, foreign exchange and interest rates. There is no certainty that properties which the Company has described as assets on its balance sheet will be realized at the amounts recorded. Going Concern

The Company has not generated revenues from its operations to date. These condensed consolidated interim financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. For the nine months ended November 30, 2024, the Company had a net loss of $199,492 (November 30, 2023 - $672,372), and as of that date, an accumulated a deficit of $5,401,314 (February 29, 2024 - $5,201,822). The Company will continue to have to raise funds in order to continue the development of its exploration properties and general operations.

As the Company is in the exploration stage, the recoverability of the costs incurred to date on exploration properties is dependent upon the existence of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain the necessary financing to complete the exploration and development of its properties and upon future profitable production or proceeds from the disposition of the properties. The Company has financed its operations to date primarily through the issuance of common shares and exercise of stock options and share purchase warrants.

The Company's continuation as a going concern is dependent on its ability to attain profitable operations and raise additional capital. These matters indicate the existence of material uncertainties that cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company's accompanying financial statements do not reflect the adjustments to the carrying values of assets and liabilities, the reported revenues and expenses and statement of financial position classifications that would be necessary if the going concern assumption was inappropriate. Such adjustments could be material.
